

Call for Entries! Sister City Art Competition

Did you know that Baltimore has a sister City?
We do - its Luxor, in Egypt, and they want to see your artwork!

Celebrate with us on Saturday, November 3, 2007, as the Governor of Luxor and the Egyptian Ambassador to the United States visit the Walters Art Museum to observe the 25th anniversary of this Sister City collaboration. As part of this special event we will be putting kids' artwork on display!

To Enter:

Make a work of art (2-D only please) about Egypt using any medium.
Read about and look at our Egyptian collection in the museum or on our website www.thewalters.org to get ideas!

 Put your name, age (pre-K-8th grade) and address on the back of your artwork.
DO NOT FOLD!

Mail it to: Family Programs
The Walters Art Museum
600 N. Charles Street
Baltimore, MD 21201

Or drop it off at the Family Art Center at the Walters Art Museum with Education Staff on Saturdays between 11AM and 3PM

Three winners will be notified
Join us at the museum on November 3, 2007 to view your artwork on display!

Hurry! Deadline for entries is October 1st.

The Walters Art Museum cannot guarantee the return of artwork and is not liable for any loss or damages that might occur.

Sponsored by The Walters Art Museum www.thewalters.org and the Baltimore/Luxor/Alexandria Sister City Committee www.BaltimoreEgypt.org

